

5. Would you be willing to share a recipe with us for a dish your family really enjoys? We are always looking for new ideas for our lunches, and may even want to create a childcare cookbook! You can attach it to this paper or send it to Amanda or Lori in an email.
6. Here is a list of qualities that families view s qualities desirable for their children to recognize and value. Which, if any, do you consider to be especially important? Mark N/A if not important to your family values.

Rank from most important to least important (1 being most important):

- ___ Independence
- ___ Hard work
- ___ Feeling of responsibility
- ___ Imagination
- ___ Tolerance and respect for other people
- ___ Determination, perserverance
- ___ Religious faith
- ___ Unselfishness
- ___ Obediance
- ___ Self-expression

7. Are there any other areas that your family values?
8. Is there anything you would like to tell us about your child's temperament? (What calms them down when they are upset, excited, or frustrated? Sometimes you have a method that works that we could benefit from.)
9. How would you describ how your child learns about the world around them? (examples would be fearless, very cautious or afraid of new things, slowly and cautiously, etc.)
10. What is the most important thing we should know about your child?
11. If you were asked to describe what you loved most about your child, what would it be?
12. What are some subjects that we could find information on that could help you with things you may be struggling with, or just questioning about your child? (thumb sucking, biting, developmental stages)